To Whom It May Concern,

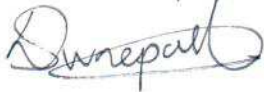

I would like to recommend Grant Ross as a candidate for a position with your organisation. I have worked with Grant for over two years during my position as an interior designer at Urban Fitout.

I find Grant to be consistently hardworking and focused in getting his job done. He is very dedicated to his work and works well independently to reach project deadlines. Grant is also an effective problem-solver who has implemented various strategies in the workplace to maximise productivity during his time at Urban. He has proven, on many occasions, that he can be trusted to deliver a completed project on schedule and within budget.

His interpersonal skills are also exemplary and appreciated by everyone who works with him. He supports other staff members who need help and is patient when teaching them new drafting skills. He is also a cheerful and enthusiastic worker who is well liked within the office. His kind-hearted nature makes him a team player that everyone can trust and rely upon.

I wholeheartedly recommend Grant for employment in the future.

Sincerely,
Linda Swanepoel
