To Whom it May Concern,

Grant Ross commenced employment with Urban Fitout Pty Ltd in 2015, where he was employed on a casual basis as a Designer Draftsman. His pleasant disposition and natural aptitude soon became apparent, and he was offered a full time position shortly after.

Grant has proved himself to be a valuable and reliable member of the project team. He consistently produces high quality projects even in times of peak demand and tight deadline pressures.

Working within a small creative team can often be demanding and stressful. Grant has the ability to successfully navigate any pressure points by maintaining a good natured and light hearted approach to the tasks at hand.

Through his ability to consistently deliver what he promises, he has earned the respect of his peers, colleagues and clients alike.

I believe that Grant adds a valuable intrinsic value to our workplace, and I would not hesitate to recommend him to any future employer.
